Institute for Catholic Education

Since 2002, the Canadian Catholic Bishops have called for a National Day of Prayer in Solidarity with Indigenous Peoples on December 12th.
In preparation for this day of Prayer, let us gather to listen to voices to help us consider peace through understanding.

Make Me a Channel of Your Peace

WEBINAR

Thursday, December 10, 2026
4:00 P.M.

In Preparation for the National Day of Prayer in Solidarity with Indigenous Peoples

OUR SPEAKERS:

Deacon Michael Robinson is Anishininew (Oji-Cree) and a registered member of Kitchinuhmaykoosib Inninuwug (KI) First Nation. He is a traditional pipe carrier, eagle staff carrier, drummer and powwow dancer. Michael honours both Indigenous and Catholic spiritual traditions in his work to build relationships, foster understanding and support healing and reconciliation with parishes in Thunder Bay and the surrounding region.

Fernanda Estoesta from the Chatham Catholic Family of Parishes Truth and Reconciliation Action Table of the Diocese of London will share some of the ways they are seeking reconciliation through increased understanding.

REGISTER HERE: https://bit.ly/3VJNZEO

Brought to you by the Truth and Reconciliation Advisory Committee of the Institute for Catholic Education